

LIST OF Events/Programs – Quarterly from 7/1/02 to 9/30/03

No.	Organization	Start date	End date	Project/Program/Event Name	Description
1	Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii	Jul 1, 2002	Dec 31, 2003	Matsuri (Festival) Package	The Project is a series of five cultural events with activities that would enhance the visitor experience by sharing a multiple community events scheduled throughout the year: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. The Good Fortune Matsuri, January 12, 2003 b. Girl's Day Matsuri, March 3, 2003 c. Celebrating Boy's Day – Hawaii Style, May 5, 2003 d. Tanabata Matsuri, July 7, 2003 e. Rice Matsuri, September 2003
2	Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii	Jul 1, 2002	Dec 31, 2003	Japan-Hawaii School Excursion Program	The Project is an Edu-Tourism program. The Grantee will be a key coordinator for the Project in a collective effort with private and public partners to support and facilitate school excursion from Japan to Hawaii. The Grantee will work on the Project within the following roles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Working with the Department of Education (DOE) to develop working partnerships with the school principals and teachers to ensure that Hawaii schools are available and willing to participate in the school-to-school program in developing education material for use in both Japan and Hawaii; ✓ Planning and coordinating with DOE administrators, teachers and Japan tour agents and school administrators to make sure that each visit is rewarding educationally; ✓ Developing and implementing a program that allows Japan and Hawaii High School students to meet when a school-to-school visit is not possible. The funds will be used to develop and implement pre and post visit programs, to design and print educational collateral materials and provide supplies. This program will be conducted from July 2002 through December 2003 with an expected target of 12 visits in 2003 and 15 pre-visits for 2004.
3	HawaiiHealthGuide.com	Jul 31, 2002	Dec 31, 2003	OahuHealthGuide.com	The Project is an on-line database directory to community, personal and environmental resources for Oahu. It interfaces with an existing statewide web-based directory, "hawaiihealthguide.com". HawaiiHealthGuide.com is an all-Island, all-Inclusive Health & Wellness Guide. The Project: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ provides a doorway ("portal") interface into the hawaiihealthguide.com. ✓ highlights Oahu-based health and wellness practitioners, healthy accommodations and activities, as well as interactive event calendars (managed by members). ✓ interfaces with existing Oahu County information and resources, including e-newsletters. ✓ lists the guide and educational topics include various health modalities; nature and conservation topics (including native plants, botanical resources, water quality); promotional materials and calendars that support farmers' markets, diversified agriculture and small farmers; the hospitality industry, including accommodations, restaurants and tour activities, as well as specific products grown or produced on Oahu.
4	Valley of Rainbows	Aug 1, 2002	Aug 31, 2002	Rediscover O'ahu/Wai'anae	The Grantee will host "Rediscover O'ahu/Waianae Sunset on the Beach" in August 2003. Event organizers anticipate more than 60 local businesses, 20 community groups, and the regional high schools to participate in this year's event. Event organizers anticipate at least 50,000 people. Visitors will boost the economy of the residents of the low-and moderate income community.
5	Historic Hawai'i Foundation	Aug 1, 2002	Ongoing	Downtown-Chinatown Historic Trail	The Project will be a series of distinctive markers that will identify and explain the significance of historic sites in the Downtown-Chinatown area. These sites will be located in the area bordered by Victoria Street (on the east), Iwilei Street (west), Vineyard Boulevard (north) and Honolulu Harbor (south)

LIST OF Events/Programs – Quarterly from 7/1/02 to 9/30/03

No.	Organization	Start date	End date	Project/Program/Event Name	Description
6	Friends of Waipahu Cultural Garden Park dba Hawaii's Plantation Village	Sep 14, 2002	Sep 14, 2002	HPV Presents: 8 various projects	A. The Pacific Islanders I and II: Sep 14, 2002 and Sep 13, 2003 In collaboration with Samoan and Pacific Islander church groups. The event will showcase the culture of the Pacific Islanders that recently immigrated to Hawaii. It will show the links to the host culture and the roots of the ancient Polynesian voyager. The activities include taro pounding, fire dancing, songs and chants of Polynesia, mat weaving and others. B. Rice Harvest Festival 2002: Nov 16, 2002 Hawaii Plantation Village (HPV) was once rice land. As an Edu-Tourism program, the event will show how various ethnic groups prepare rice. Most of the ethnic groups featured in HPV used rice as a staple starch. For most families, rice was mainly the main dish served with lots of home-grown vegetables. Each group will cook a rice dish and demon-strate their version of fried rice. Food tasting will also be provided to audiences to give them opportunity to sample each version of fried rice. C. The New Beginnings – Births and Rites of Passage: Jan 4, 2003 It is a New year's celebration where each ethnic group will be planting the trees while dressed in their appropriate ethnic clothing within the Village and each surrounding area to commemorate the new year. It also includes practices, customs, traditions of each 'house' with the birth of a child and ensuing rituals. Folklore and actual practices regarding mother and child's welfare, full month commemoration, christening, etc. will be included. D. Filial Pietty – Honoring our Ancestors: Apr 12, 2003 In collaboration with local cemetery groups and cemetery person, Nannette Purnell, a new orphaned headstone will be added to the Village cemetery to enact various ethnic funerals. Glen Grant of Tokai University has agreed to participate in the event and will provide the expertise on some issues, i.e. Geneological, séances, story teller etc. E. The Festivals of Flowers: May 3, 2003 A procession of queens, girls with flowers will stage various ethnic games, portray fun times, and flores de mayo. Presentation on how each ethnic group uses flowers for variety of reasons. F. Harvest Festival 2003: Nov 15, 2003 The event will be dedicated to the variety of ways we use taro. A poi pounding demonstration and lecture will be presented. G. Search for an Inn 2003: Dec 6, 2003 As a cultural-tourism program the event will be a story play based on Mary and Joseph's search for lodging on Christmas Eve. Writers will write scripts for each ethnic houses and the ethnic house and ground in the village will be utilized as the setting for the play.

LIST OF Events/Programs – Quarterly from 7/1/02 to 9/30/03

No.	Organization	Start date	End date	Project/Program/Event Name	Description
7	Kailua Chamber of Commerce	Oct 4, 2002	Oct 6, 2002	"Island Traditions" Windward Sunset at the Park	Theme: "Island Traditions": The Windward Celebration of Diversity and Beauty of Island Cultures. A three days Rediscover Oahu event from Friday, October 4 to Sunday, October 6, 2002 at the Kailua District Park with a free admission. The Windward Sunset at the Park: A movie screen will be erected at the Kailua District Park. Booths will be set up that will feature area restaurants and market vendors as well as non-profit organizations and youth sports leagues, schools, churches. Friday, October 4, 2002, 5 pm to 8 pm: An Evening Concert with food booth. Saturday, October 5, 2002, 10 am to 5 pm: "Kailua Keiki Day": Honor the Children Sunday, October 6, 2002, 10 am to 8 pm: "Lokahi Day": Community Unity The event addresses Cultural tourism because through this venue, we are able to share our people, our products and business, our talents and the island host culture of native Hawaiian values of Na Mele, Keiki & Ohana, and Lokahi. The visitor will be able to educate themselves from our island traditions and cultures and food while enjoying a wonderful event that brings together local residents and visitors.
8	Hawaii Theatre Center	Oct 18, 2002	May 16, 2003	Hawaiian Music Series - "A Vintage Voyage"	6 outstanding musical activities and performing arts <table><tr><td>Date</td><td>Artist</td></tr><tr><td>Friday, October 18, 2002</td><td>Sean Na'auao</td></tr><tr><td>Friday, November 15, 2002</td><td>Kalapana</td></tr><tr><td>Friday, January 17, 2003</td><td>Makaha Sons</td></tr><tr><td>Friday, March 7, 2003</td><td>Brother Cazimero</td></tr><tr><td>Friday, April 4, 2003</td><td>Olomana</td></tr><tr><td>Friday, May 16, 2003</td><td>Uluwehi Guerrero</td></tr></table>	Date	Artist	Friday, October 18, 2002	Sean Na'auao	Friday, November 15, 2002	Kalapana	Friday, January 17, 2003	Makaha Sons	Friday, March 7, 2003	Brother Cazimero	Friday, April 4, 2003	Olomana	Friday, May 16, 2003	Uluwehi Guerrero
Date	Artist
Friday, October 18, 2002	Sean Na'auao
Friday, November 15, 2002	Kalapana
Friday, January 17, 2003	Makaha Sons
Friday, March 7, 2003	Brother Cazimero
Friday, April 4, 2003	Olomana
Friday, May 16, 2003	Uluwehi Guerrero
9	TEMARI, Center for Asian & Pacific Arts	Nov 1, 2002	Dec 31, 2003	Kadomatsu 2002-2003 & Kapa/Washi/Paper	A. Kadomatsu, A New Year Festival 2002: Nov 1 – Dec 31, 2002 Kadomatsu is a traditional New Year rituals through demonstrations, performances and hands-on activities in a festive ambiance that encourages meaningful dialogues, "talk-story" to bridge differences in ages, ethnicities and lifestyle. 2002 is the 19 th year of this event B. Kapa Washi Paper: August 3- 9, 2003 The event will explore different cultures/artists (Western handmade paper, Hawaiian Kapa and Japanese washi) using the same plant source to create vastly different but equally impressive results. Activities include intergene-rational and cross-cultural activities/workshops, family festivals, exhibitions and travel demonstrations – offering opportunities for residents and visitors appreciation of indigenous crafts and discover their own creative potentials. C. Kadomatsu, A New Year Festival 2003: Nov 1 – Dec 31, 2003 This is the 20 th Kadomatsu Festival.
10	World Invitational Hula Festival (The)	Nov 7, 2002	Nov 9, 2002	E Ho'I Mai I Ka Piko Hula	Education about Hawaiian culture internationally and achievement in hula, Hawaiian language by participants who return to the source of our culture to share their knowledge, to learn through our workshop and become part of our international "ohana". The HTA CPEP fund is hypothecated to promotion, marketing of the event, advertising, printing of promotional materials. This is a big part of GRANTEE's budget as it gets an early start in promotion outside of Hawaii to publication & magazine in countries and states that have participants coming to participate in the festival.

LIST OF Events/Programs – Quarterly from 7/1/02 to 9/30/03

No.	Organization	Start date	End date	Project/Program/Event Name	Description
11	Hawaii Maritime Center	Nov 9, 2002	Nov 9, 2002	3rd Annual Honolulu Harbor Festival	On November 9, 2002 the event will provide visitors and residents alike with a unique educational experience themed around the rich history and culture of historic Honolulu Harbor. Volunteers representing dozens of businesses and city and state organizations coordinate this waterfront event which includes walking tours of the harbor, exhibits, live music and dance performances, local crafts and more. The HTA CPEP to the CITY grant will be used for marketing and promotion of the event.
12	Waipahu Community Association	Nov 9, 2002	Nov 9, 2002	Taste of Hawaii II (TOW II)	Taste of Waipahu II, a collaborative event of various organizations, businesses and schools, will be held at the Waipahu District Park from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. on November 9, 2002. It will be a celebration of the cultural diversity and pride of Waipahu community, featuring a parade of various cultures in costumes, military veterans, and bands; approximately 50 booths offering a wide array of foods, arts and crafts, fresh produce and seafood; a variety of amusements for young and old; a display of Waipahu's plantation history and tours of Hawaii's Plantation Village; live entertainment from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.; cooking demonstrations of local seafood and produce by students from four area high schools; a community tent; and historical narration on all the trolleys by students of Waipahu High School's Academy of Travel and Tourism
13	Waianae District Comprehensive Health and Hospital Board, Inc.	Dec 10, 2002	Dec 14, 2002	Sharing Traditions: Generation to Generation - A Path to Health & Wellness	The Project is a 5-day event from December 10 to 14, 2003 that includes: a. Leadership Training Conference for Asian/Pacific Islanders Community Health Organization; b. Traditional Ceremony Dedicating the Native Hawaiian Healing Center; and c. 30 th Anniversary Celebration for the Waianae Coast Comprehensive Health Center/Demonstration of Native Hawaiian Center activities.
14	E Komo Mai Hawaii	Mar 1, 2003	Jul 31, 2003	E Komo Mai Hawaii Summer Camp	Grantee is the vision of Sandy Ingraham, a high school teacher, who started the company to provide programs that allow participants to explore Hawaii in a safe and fun and educational way. The Grant will be used to improve and expand the marketing of a 10-day summer camps for young people, ages 12 to 18, an opportunity to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ participate in outdoor adventure activities at varied locations around the island of Oahu ✓ learn about Hawaiian Culture ✓ meet and interact with local youth
15	Hawaii Maoli	Mar 29, 2003	Mar 29, 2003	Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole Commerative Parade	The Prince Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole Commemorative Parade, honoring the life and contributions made by Prince Kuhio is co-sponsored in part by the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs, the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands and the State Council of Hawaiian Homestead Association and the City and County of Honolulu. The 2.2 mile modified parade route begins at Kalakaua Avenue at Saratoga Road and ends at Kapi'olani Park in Waikiki.

LIST OF Events/Programs – Quarterly from 7/1/02 to 9/30/03

No.	Organization	Start date	End date	Project/Program/Event Name	Description
16	Waikiki Improvement Association	Apr 4, 2003	Apr 4, 2003	Waikiki Spam Jam, 4th of July, and Holoholo Kai surfing	a. Waikiki Spam Jam: April 4, 2003 Waikiki Spam Jam is a two-day event/celebration of SPAM, nation most consumed in Hawaii, includes activities such as Spam food booths, cooking demonstrations, cooking contests, Hawaiian Music, in-room hotel contests, prizes giveaways from Hormel and chefs' competition. b. Fourth of July in Waikiki: July 4- 6, 2003 Fourth of July in Waikiki will be continuous activities during the Fourth of July weekend to foster visitor-resident interaction, promote cultural tourism & patriotism, and to assist economic revitalization in Waikiki. This event will include the 4th of July Celebration at Kapiolani Park and canoe race in Waikiki along with Stars & Stripes Ho'olaulea, mini concert at Kuhio Beach, restaurant and retail specials, including farmer's market. c. Holoholo Kai Surfing and Canoeing Festival: Aug 1 – Oct 1, 2003 Holoholo Kai Surfing and Canoeing Festival activities include displays, exhibits, lectures and races to promote Hawaii's water sports and legends that have perpetuated them. It is a cultural tourism program to attract visitors and residents to Waikiki through a comprehensive schedule of activities and events.
17	Filipino Community Center, Inc.	May 3, 2003	May 3, 2003	11th Filipino Fiesta & Parade	The project is a single day, cultural and family-oriented even at the Kapiolani Park and Waikiki. This year the event will be conducted on Saturday, May 2, 2003. The Fiesta will includes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A display of Filipino Arts & Crafts and Games; Culinary Arts Demonstrations; Commercial Booths; Martial Arts Demonstration; Musical Entertainment at the Kapiolani Bandstand; Food Booths. The Parade involves participation from different community groups, school and Government Officials. It begins at the Ala Moana Park and ends at the Kapiolani Park. Visitors and locals alike gather along Kalakaua Avenue to await the exciting floats and displays weaving its way through Waikiki.
18	Haleiwa Main Street Business Association	May 10, 2003	May 11, 2003	Go North Shore Sunset on the Beach	The North Shore will host "Rediscover O'ahu/North Shore Sunset on the Beach" on Friday, May 29, 2003 through Sunday, June 1, 2003. Event organizers anticipate more than 100 local businesses, 30 community groups, and the regional high schools to participate in this year's event. More than 100 local businesses, 30 community groups, and the two regional high schools will participate. Event organizers anticipate at least 40,000 people will attend, based on the number of guests at this same event which took place on June 29 and 30, 2002.
19	Moanalua Gardens Foundation, Inc.	Jul 19, 2003	Jul 19, 2003	MGF's 25th Annual Prince Lot Hula Festival	Moanalua Gardens Foundation's Prince Lot Hula Festival was established in 1978, the largest, oldest and on of the few non-competitive hula events in Hawaii. The Project is a daylong cultural celebration that preserves the native Hawaiian culture through hula, demonstrations and exhibits. The Project is very vital as it so rich in cultural diversity and tradition and led by professional and expert from the committee members such as Vicki Hold Takamine (Hula Master and lecturer for Hawaiian Studies), Nalani Olds (singer, dancer, musician, lecturer and actress), Leilani Basham (Hula Master and lecturer) and many others.

LIST OF Events/Programs – Quarterly from 7/1/02 to 9/30/03

No.	Organization	Start date	End date	Project/Program/Event Name	Description
20	Hale'iwa Arts Festival	Jul 26, 2003	Jul 27, 2003	Hale'iwa Arts Festival Sixth Annual Summer Event	The project is a summer event that includes visual artist, musicians, dancers, demonstrations, historical trolley tours, storytelling, children's art, community art and children's art & crafts activities. The event will provides a venue for artists to sell their works and an opportunity for both residents and visitors to view and experience a broad spectrum of traditional, contemporary and ethnic arts. Admission is free. Date of the project is July 26-27, 2003 (Saturday and Sunday).
21	Hawaii United Okinawa Association	Aug 30, 2003	Sep 3, 2003	Worldwide Uchinanchu Conference in Hawaii	GRANTEE is teaming up with the Worldwide Uchinanchu Business Association for the first Project. With "Sharing Uchinanchu Aloha" as its theme, the conference will bring together Uchinanchus worldwide-from Europe, Canada, United States, Mexico, Brazil, Bolivia, Peru, Argentina, Japan, China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Guam, and the Philippines. The event includes the Annual Okinawan Festival at Kapiolani Park, an international parade on Kalakaua Avenue, and business, educational, and tourism exchanges. A grand finale with music and taiko will be held at the Les Murakami Stadium on the University of Hawaii's Manoa campus. The PROJECT shall take place from August 30 to September 3, 2003
22	Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement	Sep 1, 2003	Sep 1, 2003	Second Annual Native Hawaiian Conference	The Project is a four-day convention marketed nationwide to anyone interested in Hawai'i's host culture or community development. Featuring plenary presentations, community panels, training workshops, a banquet, a concert and a marketplace. Scholarships will be provided to encourage off-island participation. The Project is an annual event held in Waikiki every year in September. The goal of the project is to provide a large, consistent forum to convene, to learn about, and to discuss community development issue of vital importance to the Hawaiian community. The project's focus on social and economic issues will attract a diverse set of Hawaiians and non-Hawaiians, as well as local, neighbor island and out-of-state participants and presenters. The Grant will be used to help promote the project, such as printing expenses for promotional material. The event will be held Aug 27-30, 2003.
23	Hawai'i Forest Industry Association	Sep 1, 2003	Sep 1, 2003	Hawaii's Woodshow 2003	The Project will be the 11th Annual Statewide Woodworking exhibition sponsored by the Grantee. Unique in its emphasis on alternatives hardwoods and its insistence in Hawai'i grown woods which can be harvested sustain ably, the Project highlights the incredible talents of local woodworkers. Many of the pieces, in conformance with the Spirit of the Project, utilize resource conserving techniques such as veneering. The environmental Spirit of the Project forbids the used of endangered native species and has resulted in media and public attention due to heightened interest in sustainable, certified and environmentally responsible forestry.